Guild News

Dear Guild Member,

I hope this note finds you well. June was a busy month with two Guild events. One will be highlighted in this issue and the other next month's E-News.

Each year, we invite our annual subscribers to continue their support for the work of the Guild. A special thank you to all who have already paid their membership dues. We are most appreciative.

As always, comments and suggestions are all welcome.

God bless, Margaret Wickware

Guild Events

SAVE-THE-DATE: On Mon 2 October, Bishop Mark O'Toole will deliver a lecture on the Catechism and the New Evangelisation to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the publication of the Catechism at St. Patrick's Church, Soho Sq, London.

Looking Forward

SotA News

- Recently, students on the FFNE (Southwark Diocese) met at the Centre for Catholic Formation for a Study Day and those studying at Ealing Abbey met for workshops and/or a retreat - led by Fr Guy de Gaynesford and Carol Ann Harnett.

- Post-diploma students recently returned to Buckfast for lectures given by SotA staff.
- Consider attending a summer school course. Further details on attached flyer.

Apologetics Evening - 13 June

I feel that this sort of event helps me to sort out my own thinking on the sort of questions real people actually ask.' - GW

About 60 people heard our panel of experts (Frs Andrew Pincent, Gerard Sheehan, Prof Stephen Bullivant and chaired by Guild member, Victoria Seed) answer questions on confession, salvation outside of the Catholic Church, Islam, Faith and Science, to mention but a few! A lively discussion ensued with calls for more talks on faith and science and clearer explanations on 'the difficult subjects'. Thanks to Guild members, Daniel and Marie-Claire Kaminski for organising this event.

Our Congratulations, prayers and best wishes to Guild members and friends

- Fr Michael Jarmulowicz ordained to the priesthood on 24 June.
- Mr Callum & Mrs Frances (Roxburgh) Hall united in the sacrament of Holy Matrimony on 10 June.
