

2016
November edition

Guild News

Dear Guild Member,

I do hope you are well. The recent weeks have been special indeed. I was able to attend SotA's graduation exercises at Buckfast Abbey and that of the Maryvale Institute at St. Chad's Cathedral, Birmingham.

Today, we are announcing our next Guild day, details below.

Wishing you a truly blessed Advent.

God bless, Margaret Wickware

SAVE the DATE

21 January 2017 – Ealing Abbey

Building on Sherry Weddell's presentation on Forming Intentional Disciples, the Plymouth Diocesan Evangelisation Dept will present: Apprenticeship for Discipleship: Setting up Parish Evangelisation Teams From Programme to Proclamation.

Note: the same presentation will be made on 20 January, St. Patrick's Church, Soho with special welcome to clergy.

Cardinal Pell in London

If you missed SotA's patron, Cardinal Pell's recent talk in London, the Catholic Herald report is available here.

REMINDER

Dr. Tracey Rowland will be speaking at St. Patrick's Soho on Saturday 10 December 2016 at noon. A special welcome to SotA students/Guild members.

SotA's Presentation of Certificates.

A beautiful Mass celebrated by SotA's patron, Bishop Mark O'Toole followed the presentation of certificates and address given Francis Campbell Vice-Chancellor, St. Mary's University (see here) and pictures on the SotA website (see here).

Special congratulations to graduating Guild members:

Raymond Fox, Janet Tate, Joanna Bogle, Pilar Bohorquez, Christine Carnelley, Elizabeth Darmody, Sharon Dawson and Christopher Moore.

As well, we salute the Guild members who graduated from the Maryvale Institute:

Dawn Clark and Patrick Martin completed the MA in Apologetics while Anne Bardell was awarded the Ecclesiastical Licence in Divinity (Pathway in Catechetical Sciences).

Other SotA News

- SotA will be announcing a GREAT line-up of EIGHT summer courses shortly – stay tuned!
- We welcome Dr. Denise Oliver to the SotA staff. Check out her book, St John of Avila.

