Guild News

Dear Members,

I hope you are enjoying these last days of August. Very importantly, details of our upcoming evening with Sherry Weddell are attached. Please circulate the flyer, bring friends and enjoy a glass a wine with us that evening.

God bless,
Margaret

Guild members share their SotA Summer School experience...

Over four days I was immersed in Sacred Scripture. We studied, prayed, explored and gained wisdom and understanding about both OT and NT. A wide variety of talks from inspirational speakers helped us to understand both the literal and spiritual senses of Sacred Scripture, introduced us to typology in the OT, enlightened us about how Christ's words in the NT are understood in light of the OT. Throughout the whole summer school our day was punctuated with the monastic liturgy of the hours, where Sacred Scripture came even more alive as a result of our studies. Sue Whitaker

The Sacred Art summer school was enjoyed by all who attended. As always, participants received fresh insights into how our faith is expressed through the language of art, and how "reading" the pictures both deepens and stimulates faith. A highlight of the weekend was a visit to a local church to examine pre-reformation sacred art in situ. Carol Ann Harnett

[It was]a fantastic few days at SotA summer school on Catholic moral teaching. I gave an introduction to Theology of the Body, so not only have I had the blessing of reading TOB all summer to prepare, I had the joy of four days at Buckfast with some contagiously passionate people, delving into the riches of the first 3 cycles (original man - eschatological man), totally awed at the beauty of Catholic anthropology. What a joy. If you have time next summer, take part in one of these summer schools - it is a beautiful way to spend four days of your summer. Hannah Vaughan-Spruce

Keep in your prayers
