

2016
January edition

Guild News

Dear Members,

I hope you had a truly blessed celebration of Christ's birth and that your 2016 is filled with many blessings.

The Guild Executive Committee is busy planning a number of exciting events that we hope will take place in 2016. Further details will be included on our Facebook page, further issues of this newsletter and the supplement to the Guild Directory that is now in process. We do hope you will be able to join us.

As always, we welcome your thoughts and suggestions.

God bless,
Margaret

Margaret Wickware (President)

Consider a Catechetical
Review
subscription

Register Today

for the Guild Day at New Malden

Guild of Our Lady and Saint Joseph

MERCY: THE WAY OF THE FATHER

Saturday 13 February 2016

St Joseph's Parish Hall, 1 Montem Rd, New Malden, KT3 3QW

The Door of Mercy

Fr Ivano Millico (Author and Westminster Priest)

Divine Mercy: More than a Devotion

Fr Dariusz Mazewski (Marian Fathers)

Mercy and Healing

Fr Dominic Allain (Director, Grief to Grace)

Plus opportunities for Confession and Adoration.

Mass at 10am • Registration & coffee at 10.30am • Speakers start at 11.10am • Day concludes with Vespers at 3.30pm

Cost: £20 (Guild members £15) • Lunch included

To register: guildofourladyandstjoseph@gmail.com

In support of the New Evangelization and the work of the School of the Annunciation www.schooloftheannunciation.com

Fr Ivano Millico's CTS booklet, The Door of Mercy has been flying off the shelves and is now in its second printing. Copies will be available at the Guild day.

Fr Dominic Allain writes the Pastor luventus column, Diary of a City Priest in the Catholic Herald.

In Your Prayers

Please remember in your prayers Guild member/catechist, Mrs Sam Robson who is undergoing chemotherapy and radiotherapy for Hodgkin's Lymphoma, a cancer of the immune system.

SoTA – January News

- The schedule of Summer Courses has been announced!

Conference for Catechists 25-28 Jul

Sacred Scripture and the Catholic Faith 1-4 Aug

Sacred Art and the New Evangelisation 11-14 Aug

Questions of moral living 22-25 Aug

Introduction to Philosophy 25-28 Aug

- SoTA staff (Sr Crucis Beards and Brian Roxburgh) attended the well attended Symposium on the Theology of the Body held at St. Patrick's Soho, London
- Congrats to SoTA staff member, Tim Walker who was awarded his Doctor of Philosophy Degree from Liverpool Hope University.
- Drs Andrew Beards and Tim Walker gave a Philosophy workshop to students at Westminster's diocesan seminary, Allen Hall.
- Fr Guy de Gaynesford and Dr Caroline Farey began parish based training for passing on the faith at OUR LADY OF THE PORTAL & ST. PIRAN - TRURO (Plymouth Diocese)
- Franciscan University student, Madison McCalister is interning for eight weeks at SoTA. Welcome Madison!

guildofourladyandstjoseph@gmail.com

Guild of Our Lady and Saint Joseph

Supporting the mission of the School of The Annunciation

