Guild News

Dear Members,

We hope you are enjoying a relaxing summer.

You may have noticed that we did not publish a June E-Newsletter. Instead, you were invited to give us feedback and suggestions for future Guild events via Survey Monkey. A special thanks to respondents. We truly value your opinions. If you haven't replied, we would be grateful for your thoughts. It takes less than 5 minutes.

Secondly, I would like to especially thank all those who have renewed their annual memberships or purchased 10-year subscriptions. We hope those who haven't yet renewed will do so shortly. Your support is essential as we continue to support the work of SoTA.

God bless,
Margaret

Margaret Wickware (President)

One reason why a Guild Membership is such good value...

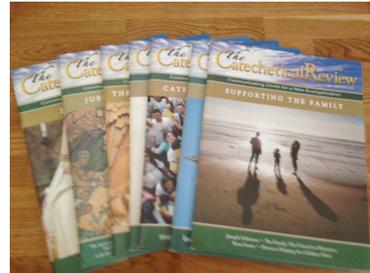

SoTA, through the efforts of Callum Hall, kindly provides us with audio recordings of various lectures given by Fr Guy de Gaynesford, Dr. Andrew Beards, Dr. Caroline Farey and others. Members of the Guild in good standing are able to access these recordings. Please email us (guildofourladyandstjoseph@gmail.com) if you would like to be reminded of the password and username.

SAVE THE DATE: Sherry Weddell will be speaking at St. Patrick's Soho 19 September.

Keep in your prayers

Please remember in your prayers Guild members who are ill or in need of our prayers.

A Gift to the SoTA Library

The Guild has given a subscription of Catechetical Review to SoTA along with back issues. If you would like to purchase this series, please be in touch.

SoTA – May News

- Twenty-three students have begun the Foundations in Faith for the New Evangelisation course at the St. John Southworth parish in Nelson, Lancashire. Congrats to Guild member Anne Bardell for spearheading this initiative. If you would like to organize the course in your area, don't hesitate to contact Anne or course leader/guild member, Carol Ann Harnett directly or through the Guild email address (left). Please know the Guild is willing to assist.
- The inaugural Catechetical Conference took place at Buckfast Abbey last week. Focusing on CCC 234, the conference unfolded the mystery of the most Holy Trinity to refresh and form about 20 catechists in attendance. Several of the brilliant lectures given by Fr. Guy de Gaynesford, and Dr. Dominic Doyle of Boston College, USA are available on the SoTA website to Guild members. (P.S. It was a great week in the company of Guild members both old and new.)
- Summer Schools are now in full swing, however, it is not too late to register. See the SoTA website for details.
